

Société Réaliste is a Parisian cooperative created by Ferenc Grof and Jean-Baptiste Naudy in June 2004. It works with political design, experimental economy, territorial ergonomics and consulting in the area of social engineering. Polytechnic, it develops its production schemes through exhibitions, publications and conferences. The Société Réaliste is represented by Galerie Martine Aboucaya (Paris). Société Réaliste's most recent group exhibitions include: 2010 – Rennes Biennial (FR), Fondazione Pistoletto, Biella (IT), Műcsarnok/Kunsthalle, Budapest (HU), Walter and McBean Galleries, SFAI, San Francisco (USA), 2009 – Istanbul Biennial (TK), Lyon Biennial (FR). Société Réaliste's most recent solo exhibitions include: 2010 – Platform3, Munich (DE), Kisterem Gallery, Budapest (HU), 2009 – Martine Aboucaya Gallery, Paris (FR), Uqbar Berlin (DE), Hold & Freight, London (UK)